Date and Venue: 02/11/2019, College Campus

With regard to the eco friendly practices, Khalsa College of Education, Ranjit Avenue, Amritsar organized an Extension lecture on Poisonous Plastic by Ms. Anjum Sharma, Assistant Professor, Khalsa College of Education, Ranjit Avenue, Amritsar on 2/11/2019. It was attended by 47 students and five faculty members. Ms. Anjum warned about the harmful effects of plastic pollution on health of all living beings. She supported her words with PPT presentation and added how society has become completely dependent on plastic and addition of toxic additives to improve its properties. Further she stated how these additives can be absorbed by the skin; evaporate into the air, absorbed via the food and drinks we consume. She made some shocking revelations like we eat contaminated sea food, we consume plastic via packaging, we drink micro plastic via bottled water, we absorb plastic through clothes and above all we breathe plastic. The lecture was an eye opener for all.
