Title of the Activity: Development of Literacy Skills

Date & Venue: September 16-17, 2020, Pingalwara Charitable Society, Amritsar

Khalsa College of Education, Ranjit Avenue, Amritsar took the initiative and arranged a visit of 8 students to Pingalwara, Amritsar on September 16-17, 2020. Before hand they were prepared about the activities to be performed amid the underprivileged children keeping in view the Covid-19 pandemic restrictions and precautions. So, our students made them learn numerals orally, count objects and things, count using their fingers and help the uneducated children in exploring their thoughts and expressing them. Students build rapport with the inmate of pingalwara and created an atmosphere of learning. Students of the college made them learn in a very joyful manner. In these two days our students developed a good intimacy with the children of pingalwara. The event turned out to be a success as the college students showed the willingness for repeated visits.

Practice Teaching / Internship in Schools

Internship is an integrated part of teacher education programs which can only be conducted in partnership with schools. Both teacher education institutions and schools when join hands to prepare good teachers only then the goal can be achieved. In accordance with this, Khalsa college of education, Ranjit Avenue, Amritsar every year put efforts to approach schools of repute in the city for the internship of the students. Due to COVID Pandemic this year internship of previous batch is going on as the semesters were swapped by the affiliating university. This internship (semester program) of the present batch is still to be held. This year also we approached many schools for internship of B.Ed (2019-21) and B.ed. M.Ed. integrated (2019-22) students. As this was the year of Pandemic, many schools denied as well due to constraints of online teaching and some new schools were also approached for the same and internship held in online mode only. We are permanent partners with sister institutions of our college and apart from this schools under Chief Khalsa Diwan Society, H.K Public School, Luv Dale Senior Secondary School, Madhav Vidya Niketan and other schools of repute in the city. Apart from this initially Punjab Government in collaboration with affiliating university, GNDU, Amritsar allocates government schools to the students, but this year only 37 students of B.Ed. were allocated schools, rest of the students were allocated private schools, for which list was shared with students and students gave their choices for the schools and maximum number of students got the schools of their choice. We have developed good relations with practicing schools, where schools are initially oriented with total internship.

Inservice Training to School Teachers

The faculty of our college is assigned a very brilliant venture of providing Inservice training to various school teachers. This task has the motive of updating the practical knowledge of the teachers presently working as to keep the school education system intact with the constant changes brought by outburst of technological bubble. The school teachers are acquainted with the new pedagogical strategies in Teacher Education and skills used to various subjects. In the present year sessions were delivered to school teachers in online mode on Online learning platforms, use of Google Classroom and Online Evaluation Tools keeping in mind the situation of pandemic. The benefitted schools were Ajanta Public School, Amritsar, Majha Public school, Amritsar, Khalsa International Public School, Amritsar, Madhav Vidaya Niketen, Amritsar etc. The interaction between school teachers and teacher educators is also very beneficial for both the professions as well as ensuring maximum learning outcomes of the students through right mode of teaching. New and innovative strategies were discussed and conveyed to the schools for addressing the diversity of the classroom environment along with pandemic situation prevailing in society.

Online Principals' Meet

Without the helping hand of partner schools, it shall be an impossible venture to give a practical training to the budding teachers. Every year Khalsa College of education, Ranjit Avenue, Amritsar, does seek the suggestions and requirements of the school Principals in context of the present-day scenario. But with due regard to the prevailing Pandemic offline meet with the school principals was not possible. So, online meet with the respective principals of the schools was arranged on 29 January 2021. A list of schools was prepared beforehand and an invitation was send intimating the timing and agenda for the virtual meet. The partner schools including Ajanta Public School, Shri Guru Harkrishan International Public School, Khalsa College International Public School, Khalsa Senior Secondary School etc., were approached. The meet was organized and hosted by Dr. Surinder Kaur (Vice- Principal), Ms. Anjum Sharma and Dr. Kamalpreet Kaur. The virtual meet was attended by the principals of nearly 17 schools. They gave a few practical suggestions regarding the conduct of teaching practice and the expectations they have from the B.Ed. interns. Finally, the meet concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Surinder Kaur.

School Teachers as Evaluators in Skill in Teaching

As a part of joint efforts of teacher education institutes and schools, Khalsa College of Education, Ranjit Avenue, Amritsar, invites teachers of schools, as evaluators in final skill in teaching examination of B.Ed. and M. Ed. Integrated students every year. In present year, internship of batch (2019-21; 2019-22) was swapped from third to fourth semester which is in process. So in 6 months internship of batches 2018-20, 2018-21 of B.Ed. and B.Ed. M.Ed. Integrated respectively in 2019 odd term teachers of different subjects from Khalsa College International Public School, Ranjit avenue, Amritsar, Ajanta Public School, Basant Avenue were invited for evaluating final skill in teaching of students. College as a requirement of university Examination and to bring quality and transparency in final evaluation seeks facilitation from school teachers in evaluating performance of prospective teachers. Formal requirement for evaluators was send to the school principals before hand and consent of the principal was taken through letter or telephonically. On the days of exam teachers evaluated as well as gave constructive suggestions to our students. Finally, principal thanked all teachers from schools and the n principals over lunch on final day of exam for sparing their precious time for the college and also giving their valuable and experiences suggestions to our students.

Donation of Teaching Aids

Every year students of B.Ed, B.Ed-M.Ed Integrated prepare many teaching aids as a part of their practice in teaching. During their practice in schools they prepare supplementary aids for teaching different subjects and these aids are donated to school at the end of teaching practice in schools by the students in their respective schools. even students prepare variety of teaching learning resources during their discussion lessons and final skill in teaching which are submitted to the college at the end. So every year college donate these aids to many schools which are our partners. this is due to swapping of semester in line with COVID-19 pandemic internship still in process that too in online mode. but in the internship in the year 2019 students in various practicing schools donated their teaching aids in their practicing schools only. Also after the completion of final skill in teaching principal Dr Surinder Pal Kaur Dhillon personally visited few schools like government senior secondary school mall road Amritsar and shivala road neighboring school Khalsa international public school and sister institutes Khalsa college senior secondary public school and donated teaching aids related to various school subjects. College generally takes such kind of initiative to strength the relationship in schools and even to work for the betterment of schools as well

Rehabilitation Clinics

The college tried to acquaint the students with the ongoing rehabilitation services in the society. To fulfil the above said goal, the visit to Central Orphanage, Chief Khalsa Diwan; All India Pingalwara Charitable Society and Dr. Marwaha's clinic was arranged. Students were given hands on experience while interacting with the counsellors so that they can be acquainted with the working mechanism of rehabilitation services. The minute details were observed and students got a thorough chance to see the infrastructure of the above said organisations. Further, interaction with mild cases was there to give students awareness about mental disorders and mild disorientations. The visit was very successful as it led the students be a part of marginalised strata of our society thus ensuring the embedment of humane values like sympathy, love and compassion which are extremely important to run the education system of any developed country.
